

Types of Government Review WS

- 1.) Which is an essential requirement of a democratic government?
- A. Citizens have a choice in choosing their leaders
  - B. Government leaders can do anything they wish
  - C. Judges run for election rather than get appointed
  - D. Everyone pays the same amount of taxes

- 2.) Which type of government ensures its citizens the most right?
- A. Monarchy
  - B. Theocracy
  - C. Democracy
  - D. Dictatorship

3.) The following question has two parts

Part A: Describe the relationship between citizens in a democracy and their leader (remember that a “relationship” between two things is how they are connected to one another).

---

---

---

---

Part B: How is that relationship different than all other type of governments?

---

---

---

---

- 4.) What is a major characteristic of an absolute monarchy?
- A. Ordinary citizens vote on who is going to be their next leader
  - B. An all-powerful king or queen rules over everyone
  - C. A national legislature votes on what is best for the people

5.) A country has a government in which its citizens are entitled to vote. Laws are made by legislatures who are elected by a majority of voters in their election districts. Which best describes the system of government of this country?

- A. Monarchy
- B. Democracy
- C. Theocracy
- D. Dictatorship

6.) What is a major right that a citizen would most likely not receive in a theocracy?

---

---

7.) Which characteristic is common to both dictatorship and absolute monarchy?

- A. Both have elected leaders
- B. Both support complete artistic and literary freedom
- C. Both encourage freedom of speech
- D. Both punish opponents of the ruler's authority

8.) How did this person gain power in his government?

---

---

---

9.) Identify which type of government is associated with the following using the following letters: Monarchy (M), theocracy (T), democracy (De), dictatorship (Di).

- |                                   |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| ___ Multi-party elections         | ___ Using a religious text to write a nation's laws      |
| ___ Use of military to keep power | ___ "For the people, by the people"                      |
| ___ Inheriting power              | ___ The governed have no rights or liberties             |
| ___ Branches of government        | ___ The governing has complete control over its citizens |

10.) How did these people gain power in their government?

---

---

---

---

